You are looking for:

- A company culture that supports and encourages its employees to seek out professional development opportunities and will work to facilitate their participation in them
- Coworkers with energy, enthusiasm, and respect for their fellow team members
- A position that functions as an ideal stepping stone to a career in development or other nonprofit work
- An avenue to pay off college debt or future education
- A nonprofit that believes that youth service can change the world

YVC needs someone with:

- An excellent ability to write persuasively
- Strong research and editing skills
- A sense of urgency that drives organization, prioritization, and reliability
- A friendly communication style that creates connection to people from a variety of backgrounds
- The ability to think creatively and strategically to solve problems
- A desire to empower others and leverage their strengths for team success

This full-time, 12-month AmeriCorps VISTA position could be right for you! Strong skills are needed, but experience isn’t required; training and resources will be provided. VISTA members receive professional development and experience, but opportunities for future employment aren’t guaranteed. Multiple positions are available at YVC, and candidates may apply for more than one position.

“YVC staff value the work that we’re doing and want us to succeed. I’ve only been here a couple of months and feel like I’ve learned more here than I would have three years at a different job.” – Sydney, previous AmeriCorps VISTA Fund Development Coordinator at YVC
